

ZINC

ENZYME FUNCTION & IMMUNE SYSTEM SUPPORT

Zinc is another essential mineral that is popular in health circles and for good reason as well. SSA Supplements brings you another key essential to add to your vitamin and mineral stack with its well dosed formulation of zinc. Zinc's benefits stretch into the realm of the everyday and is another member of the vitamin and mineral group that your body cannot naturally produce. Therefore, it is absolutely vital that you supplement it on the daily.

Zinc's most noticeable benefits are:

- It is necessary for processes involved with your metabolism and digestion.
- Helps optimize immune system functionality.
- Plays a key role in the activation process of protein synthesis.
- Promotes cell growth and body development.
- Boosts the speed of wound healing.
- Is a much-needed mineral for the optimal performance of your sense of smell and taste.
- Decreases inflammation in the body.

No person serious about their health can do without having zinc in their homes and SSA Supplements brings you a zinc that is unquestionably loaded per tab.
